BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT ROADSHOW

Would you like to discover an efficient approach to team discussions, and problem solving within your practice?

How about understanding collaborative visualisation in teamwork?

Top Hats, Toast and Moments of Truth will enable you to work together more efficiently, and effectively as a business practice and determine what your critical moments are, and their impact on your practice.

Sheila Scott and Chris Barrow will give you the tools to design and develop your patient experience, and increase your treatment plan acceptance.

Dont miss this unique opportunity to catch this pair out on the road!
